

Hoorsun International Trading Co. with its experienced and specialized staff and originating from the saffron-rich region of Khorasan- Iran is always trying to combine experience, local tradition, knowledge and academic industry to reach the best result of Saffron and exports overseas. This product always required to carry out strict control and monitoring measures, and for this purpose, after the approval of the quality control unit, all its products are packaged in a completely hygienic environment, using advanced technology and benefiting from committed employees. Hoorsun Saffron entered into this field for selling their high quality saffron to the domestic and target International market. By passing of time, Hoorsun Saffron due to high quality becomes a well-known Iranian saffron.

Hoorsun International Trading Co. entered the field of competition in foreign markets with national and international standards. Due to continuous efforts of this group, we are able to export high quality Iranian saffron to other countries such as Germany, China, UAE, Netherlands, Spain, Qatar and etc.... in order to show the quality and grade of Iranian saffron to the all over the world.

